

7/18/68

Allocate ECS as follows:

Reserve $m\%$ for buffer of swapped processes. m is chosen as small as possible to keep CPU fairly busy (and might be adjusted by the system as to runs).

The rest is allocated to as many processes as will fit, starting with the smallest. These processes are permanently resident.